SICSA Announces A Night to Remember Open House

Kettering, Ohio, October 3rd, 2011 - The Society for the Improvement of Conditions for Stray Animals (SICSA) is proud to announce its annual A Night to Remember Open House. This event is open to SICSA members, volunteers, and the general public and will take place Sunday, December 4th, 2011 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the SICSA lobby.

“This is such a wonderful way to remember all of the furry friends who have impacted our lives,” said Deborah Durbin, Development Coordinator for SICSA.

Participants can order a $5 celebration light to honor a loved one or pet, and individuals who order more than five lights will receive a hand-painted, pet-themed glass ornament with a gift box. “We’ll also have refreshments, a tree lighting, and a pet blessing,” continued Durbin. “SICSA is a pet-friendly establishment, so we also encourage participants to bring their four-legged family members, too.”

All of the ordered lights will illuminate SICSA’s outdoor trees from December 5th to January 5th. SICSA will take orders for remembrance lights until December 31st, and all of the honorees can be viewed online at www.sicsa.org.

“We all know what it’s like to lose a pet or a loved one,” added Durbin. “By remembering them in such a beautiful way, it helps keep their memory alive.”

About SICSA

Originated in 1974, SICSA was started as an alternative to the traditional animal welfare system with a mission of improving the lives of stray animals and promoting adoption. The organization runs an Animal Adoption Center in Kettering at 2600 Wilmington Pike, which is open seven days a week to the public for those interested in bringing a companion animal into their home. For more information about SICSA, please log onto their website at www.SICSA.org or call the Adoption Center at (937) 294-6505.
